

Bristol Big Sisters Conference

16th October 2016

10am – 4pm

The Park Community Hub

Daventry Road

Knowle

Bristol

BS4 1DQ

A day for Muslim women to come together in the spirit of sisterhood to tackle issues important to them

Putting Ideas into Action

The day will consist of interactive workshops, inspiring and motivational talks, to help you put your ideas into action

Activities

Keynote speaker

Talseem Kausar - A mother and recent graduate of social sciences and law from the University of Bristol in the area of policy making. She works as a researcher and facilitator of social change through creativity, using a series of techniques, to engage women from diverse backgrounds to realise their potential.

Workshops themes

Barriers to Employment – Adult Education – Health & Wellbeing – Cultural Identity and Empowerment

FREE lunch and refreshments

Light refreshments throughout the day and a networking halal lunch provided by the 91 Ways Pop Up Peace Cafe

Question time

Islamophobia & Radicalisation – An opportunity to ask questions of the Home Office, The Police and community groups.

Stalls

Volunteering – Career Opportunities – Caring For Others – Wellbeing – Hate Crime – Universal Credit – Adoption & Fostering Service – Zero Tolerance

91 WAYS TO BUILD A GLOBAL CITY

Bringing the 91 language communities of Bristol together through food.

To book a ticket go to:

- <https://bristolbigsistersconference-adult-tickets.eventbrite.co.uk>

To get in touch please email

- bristolbigsistersconference@gmail.com

And find more details at:

www.facebook.com/bristolbigsistersconference

<https://twitter.com/bristolbigsis16>

Free buses begin at 9am and will run every 15 minutes until 10am leaving from Barton Hill Settlement, Ducie Road with the following stops on the way.

Easton – Easton Leisure Centre, Stapleton Road
St Pauls – The Learning Centre, Grosvenor Road

A small number of free crèche places are available in the soft play area. Places must be pre booked.

<https://bristolbigsistersconference-crechespaces.eventbrite.co.uk>

Disabled Access – The building is accessible for wheelchairs and those with mobility problems.

Interpretation – We can provide limited interpretation in the workshops. Please tell us if you need an interpreter when booking your conference tickets.

BSL – A BSL interpreter can be made available. Please tell us if you need an interpreter when booking your conference tickets.

Free and ample parking is available including dedicated parking for disabled people.